ACCREDITATION

GIA's main campus and worldwide headquarters in Carlsbad is accredited by the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges (ACCSC). GIA's campus in New York is accredited by the ACCSC as a branch of GIA's campus in Carlsbad. ACCSC's accreditation is institutional in nature and includes GIA's U.S. On Campus programs only. GIA's Distance Education courses and Lab classes do not fall within the purview of GIA's institutional accreditation by the ACCSC. GIA's Distance Education programs are accredited by the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC). ACCSC and DEAC are listed by the U.S. Department of Education as nationally recognized accrediting agencies.

All non-US GIA campuses and locations adhere to the regulations of the countries in which they are located. In addition to this recognition, the London campus is accredited by the Independent Schools Inspectorate (ISI) and the British Accreditation Council (BAC).

TRANSCRIPT VALIDATION

A transcript is official if it is stamped with an embossed institution seal, bears the signature of the Registrar, and is dated.

TRANSCRIPT FORMAT

GIA implemented a new academic record system in 2021. The transcript of a student enrolled beginning 2021 or later will be computer-generated. Students who attended both before and after 2021 have had their prior work converted and their transcript will be computer-generated.

CALENDAR AND UNITS

GIA is a yearly calendar term (January-December) school. On-campus and lab classes are provided with clock hours as units of credit. Distance Education eLearning courses will not be provided with clock hours or units of credit. From the years 2003 through 2010, the School of Business courses provided quarter credits as units of credit.

Note: The information that follows represents current and historical institution policies. Further questions regarding historical institution policies and/or transcript notations should be addressed to the Office of the Registrar.
